by deleting all language after the enacting clause and by substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1.

(a) The state funding board shall:

(1) Study the current constitutional provision commonly known as the "Copeland Cap" provided for in article II, § 24 of the Constitution of Tennessee;

(2) Study the current statutory method of estimating the rate of growth of the state's economy pursuant to title 9, chapter 4, part 52;

(3) Identify alternative methods of estimating the rate of growth of the state's economy;

(4) Identify practices as adopted through statutory or constitutional provisions in other states designed to limit or establish boundaries for state spending or to hold elected officials accountable for spending above defined limits or boundaries; and

(5) Recommend statutory revisions, constitutional revisions, combination of statutory and constitutional revisions, if any, to clarify, modify, reform or replace Tennessee's current spending limitations or boundaries and the accountability of its elected officials for actions that may exceed the limitations or boundaries.

(b) The attorney general and reporter shall furnish such assistance to the state funding board as shall be requested by the state funding board.
